Carry me away little kitties

The Imac Linus Pet Carrier is designed in Italy and is suitable for small dogs and cats. Its sturdy construction and left and right options for opening, make this a safe and versatile carrier. Lightweight and easy to assemble, this easy to tote carrier offers convenience and safety. Dimensions: 50 x 33 x 35 cm. Available pet stores.

Sprout some parrot love

Your parrots are going to love munching on My Parrot. These organic sprout mixes come in three mixes: Original, Spicy and Chunky. Mixes include mungbean, fenugreek, lentil, radish, alfalfa, chickpea, sunflower, quinoa and almonds. Conveniently packaged in 250g, 500g and 1 kilo bags, you'll be sprouting taste and nutrition in no time. Available online www.myparrotshop.com. Sprouter sold separately.

Take the guess work out of your cat's health

Kitty Vet Health Detector is a revolutionary product that when sprinkled into cat litter, can detect the presence of urinary tract infections. The crystals discolour on contact with urine. A guide to the colour changes determines whether urine is healthy, marginal or needs vet attention. Available pet stores.

Mini hotties deliver big warmth

These sweet winter warmers will have you cuddling up with your cutie. With a knitted cover for added comfort, they're just the right size for sore joints or to deliver safe warmth to pet beds. Available selected gift stores.

A heavenly pet bed to fit your decor

This heavenly cloud of cumulonimbus canine and cat comfort now comes with more cover colour options.

Poppy's Heavenly Pet Bed is still the same high quality, retaining its dust mite and flea resistant material, but now you have more choices-original blue, biscuit and chocolate. Your pets and your décor will be singing with the angels.

The products featured in this section were chosen prior to general advertising being solicited from any potential product suppliers. Hence the products reviewed were chosen without regard to advertising.

It's cool to have Ugly Dolls

These little guys are too cool for school. Ugly Dolls are from a twisted, bizzaro world where ugly is revered. Ugly Dolls make snugly companions for dogs and cats and can be used as snugly pillows. They'll make every toy basket cool.

Biodegradable bowl—kind to your pets and the environment

This pet bowl is for the environmentally conscious. Made from by-products of renewable and sustainable crops, it's safe for cats and dogs. The bowl holds up to five cups of water or food. Its life span is up to five years. Available pet stores.

Chomp Chomp, it's time for Chew Chew

The Chew Chew Kitchen turns out meals that are made from natural, organic ingredients. Sourcing the best quality produce from reputable suppliers, mainly in Sydney, all meals are human grade. You can order a home delivery direct from Chew Chew or purchase at selected pet stores.

Hot collars for hot dogs

Your hottie is going to love these fashion forward collars. Available in two styles and six bright colours, these snappy designs are sure to attract some attention. The Adjustable collar has a plastic snap and adjustable buckle. The Training collar is more a martingale style. Matching adjustable length leads are also available. Available selected homeware stores.

Crafty, draughty house dogs

These gorgeous little house critters will help lower winter heating bills. They stand guard at the door, warding off draughts and chills all while looking stylish. The hand drawn, botanical elements and texturing create lively, organic prints.

And as one door shuts, another one stays open. These chook cousins are weighted and designed to keep doors open or ajar. Made from the same range of colourful textiles, every corner of your house can be decorative, yet functional.
